

10TH ANNUAL CHILD WELFARE INSTITUTE

Finding Your Voice . . .Supporting Other Voices

September 26-29, 2005 • Provo Marriott • 101 West 100 North

Conference Schedule at a Glance

Monday, September 26: Annual Indian Child Welfare Conference.

Tuesday, September 27:

8:30am-9:15am: Welcome and Keynote:

National keynote speaker Kevin Campbell from the National Resource Center for Family Centered Practice and Permanency Planning will address supporting the voices of fathers in child welfare practice.

9:30am to 4:00pm: Full-Day Workshops with an hour lunch on site.

Wednesday, September 28:

8:30am – 1:00pm: Director's Morning and Luncheon:

Our one opportunity each year to come together as an entire division, this morning will include the Director's Message and Annual Awards Presentation for Community Partners, Lifetime Achievement Awards, the Marty Palmer Award for Excellence in Child Welfare Education, and the Region Caseworker of the Year Awards.

1:00pm – 4:00pm: Half-Day Workshops

Thursday, September 29:

8:30am – 9:15am: Welcome and Keynote:

Local favorite and internationally recognized author, speaker and humanitarian, Richard Paul Evans will share his own story of finding his voice and supporting the voices of countless children through Christmas Box House International.

9:30am to 4:00pm: Full-Day Workshops with an hour lunch on site.

Look for Online Registration Information in August!

10TH ANNUAL CHILD WELFARE INSTITUTE WORKSHOPS AT A GLANCE
DATE	Tuesday, September 27 full-day workshops	Wednesday, September 28 half-day workshops	Thursday, September 29 full-day workshops
Workshop Topic/Working Title	Self-Care For Child and Family Services Staff	Motheread/Fatheread	Serving Hispanic/Latino Families
	Emergency Preparedness for Foster Families (two half-day workshops)	Shaken Baby Syndrome/Fathers	Concurrent Permanency Planning
	Attachment and Loss	Child Abuse Prevention and “SOAR”	Teaming up to Work with Incarcerated Parents and Parents on Probation/Parole
	Adopt Care	Ansell Casey Life-Skills Assessment: Part One (continues on Thursday)	Ansell Casey Life-Skills Assessment: Part Two (continued from Wednesday)
	Advocating for Families	Facilitating Transitions that Promote Permanence and Stability for Children	Mental Health Treatment and Advocacy for children and adolescents
	Risk and Protection Factors	Serving Refugee Families	Coping Skills Employed by Traumatized Children
	Teaming with our Medical Partners	Helping Youth Understand Their Past	Assessing Safety and Developing Safety Agreements with Families
	Effects of Domestic Violence on Children	Serving Pacific Islander Families	TBA
	Father Involvement in Child Welfare	Supporting Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgendered and Questioning Youth in Foster Care	TBA